Dear Sonja,

Many apologies for the wrong name (it's the defendants name, unfortunately I was moving too fast trying to get through the backlog of cases I'm working on). It is you that I need for this case. The information, including Drug Lab Number on the certificate, is noted below. Please let me know if you need any additional information.

I'll move to continue the trial; if you have a chance to let me know which dates might be better for you that would be helpful.

Defendant: [REDACTED]
Docket: [REDACTED]
Court: Springfield District
Drug Lab #: [REDACTED]

Possible trial dates:

Jan 19, 20

Feb 9, 10, 16, 17

March 9, 10, 16, 17

April 6, 7, 13, 14

Happy Holidays!

Hi Cary-

First, I just want to make sure that this case is for me (not "Dear [REDACTED]"). Second, I already have a trial scheduled in Belchertown District Court on 1/13/10. Finally, although having the defendant's name helps, it would also be helpful to have the Drug Lab Number(s) indicated on the certificate(s). Thanks.

Dear [REDACTED]

There is a trial scheduled 1/13/10 (Wed) in Springfield District Court (distribution of Class A substance) for which you performed the drug analysis. I apologize for the very late notice -- I am taking over the caseload of a prosecutor who is on maternity leave and it appears that you weren't slipped. Can you let me know ASAP whether you are available 1/13 so that I can move to continue the trial if you are not? Thanks so much for your help.

Defendant: [REDACTED]
